DETENTION ORDER

On August 11, 2017, I held a detention hearing. Defendant appeared in person, represented by appointed counsel Ronna Holloman-Hughes. Defendant stipulated to detention. Accordingly, it is ORDERED that Defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for detention pending grand jury action and, if an indictment is returned, pending trial. It is further

ORDERED that Defendant be confined in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. It is further

ORDERED that the Attorney General or his authorized representative ensure that Defendant is afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with his counsel. It is further

ORDERED that, on order of a court in the Western District of Missouri, the person in charge of the corrections facility where Defendant is confined deliver Defendant to a United States Marshal for his appearance in connection with a court proceeding. It is further ORDERED that, upon receipt of written consent from counsel for the United States and counsel for the defendant, the United States Marshal is authorized to temporarily transfer custody of the defendant to a federal law enforcement agency for the purpose of furthering a legitimate law enforcement purpose or investigation. If custody of the defendant is temporarily transferred to a federal law enforcement agency pursuant to this authority, then federal law enforcement agents of that agency shall be present with the defendant at all times. Agents of the federal law enforcement agency to whom temporary custody of the defendant is transferred shall be responsible for the safe and secure custody of the defendant, as well as the defendant's well-being while in the temporary custody of that federal law enforcement agency.

The defendant, whose custody is temporarily transferred pursuant to this authority, shall remain in the United States Courthouse, 400 East 9th Street, Kansas City, Missouri, shall not be taken to another location, and shall be returned by the federal law enforcement agency to the United States Marshals Service cell block no later than 5:00 p.m. on the day of the temporary transfer.
